

The Wisconsin no call list has dramatically improved me and my families life. We can now eat meals without numerous interruptions. I can even take a nap without being disturbed by a telemarketer. I wish they would extend this to political telemarketers. I realize we have no chance because we do not have the money these special interests have.